

UCLA Summer Research Program in Beijing, China

UCLA-Peking University Joint Research Institute Summer Research Program June 20, 2016 – August 26, 2016

"I was able to tread through the world of science and Chinese culture. Beijing also became like another home, where I learned from excellent mentors and enjoyed many meals with friends." - Diane V., 2015 cohort

UCLA undergraduate and graduate students in the sciences, engineering, and the health sciences are eligible to apply for the 10-week Summer Research Program at Peking University (PKU). Each student teams up with PKU faculty and graduate student mentors to work on projects jointly designed with their UCLA adviser.

Up to $4,000 in scholarships may be available for selected students.

To learn more about the program and how to apply, please visit the JRI website. The deadline for applications is January 18, 2016.
