

ANDREESSEN HOROWITZ

Connecting the best college talent to the hottest technology startups

Tuesday, October 26

5:00pm - 6:00pm

Boelter Hall, Room 4760

Andreessen Horowitz is a venture capital firm established in June 2009 and located in Menlo Park, CA. The firm invests in high technology companies and is based on a vision for a new, modern venture capital firm that supports entrepreneurs through angel investments to large scale funding. Its general partners are Marc Andreessen, Ben Horowitz and John O'Farrell, all widely recognized experts in the creation, scaling, and operation of high growth technology companies such as Netscape, Opsware, Silver Spring Networks, and Excite@Home.

Come hear first hand from Andreessen Horowitz and some of our portfolio companies, including Skype, Okta, and Factual.

We are interested in meeting rockstar programmers and connecting the best college level talent to our exciting portfolio companies. If you are a motivated individual with a degree in Computer Science or Engineering with excellent academic achievement, expressed interest in software development and looking to work with a small team of engineers, then we want to meet you!
