

Greetings from Blizzard Entertainment's University Relations Team

The University Relations team has some updates to share! Thank you, as always, for your continued support and promotion of Blizzard Entertainment's University Relations programs to your student community.

If you are not interested in being a part of this email list or if there is someone you feel we should add, please respond to this email.

If your students have any questions, please direct them to our University Relations webpage, Blizzard Careers Twitter feed, or our LinkedIn Group!

Summer 2015 Internships

Opportunities are live now!

Blizzard's epic internship program returns in 2015 with opportunities in programming, writing, design, art, business operations, and more.

Link to Internship Postings

Link to Internship FAQ

Application deadline is January 31st. We have opportunities in all three of our US locations – Irvine, San Francisco, and Austin.

Looking forward to seeing your students' applications!

The WoW Student Art Contest

The WoW Student Art Contest is back!

We're calling on Environment and Character Artists to show us their own unique take on Azeroth.

Link to Contest Page

Link to Contest FAQ

Submissions are due January 15th. Prizes include Blizzard I00t and a 3 month Mentorship by a World of Warcraft Artist!

Excited to see your students' take on the World of Warcraft art style!

Blizzard Entertainment University Relations Team:

Cat Kiengsiri (Senior University Relations Specialist)

Stephanie Prevolos (University Relations Specialist)

Janine Tedford (Senior University Relations Specialist)
