
NSF GK-12 Fellowship

I wanted to let you know that the UCLA SEE-LA GK-12 program is now accepting applications from graduate students for the 2011-2012 year.

I would be grateful if you could circulate to graduate students in Engineering.

What: NSF GK-12 Fellowship

Stipend: $30,000 plus tuition and fees (up to $10,500)

Twelve-month Fellowship: July 1, 2011 through June 30, 2012

Requirements: PhD student, US citizen or permanent resident status

Application deadline: February 15, 2011

Information session: January 31, 2011 from 4 - 5 p.m. in 4275 Boelter Hall

To apply, go to:

<http://measure.igpp.ucla.edu/GK12-SEE-LA/apply.html>

This exciting National Science Foundation Fellowship is intended to improve the science communication, teaching, and public outreach skills of science and engineering graduate students, while improving science and engineering education in public schools. Throughout a summer and academic year, Fellows will work with master science teachers at local schools in the Los Angeles and Culver City areas in developing and implementing hands-on, inquiry-based activities related to their research and the local environment. Fellows will also attend seminars at UCLA addressing issues in science and engineering education. More information can be found at: <http://measure.igpp.ucla.edu/GK12-SEE-LA/> and <http://www.gk12.org/>.

Questions? Please contact Janice Daniel at janice@ucla.edu.

Best regards,
Janice

--

Janice Daniel
Program Manager

UCLA SEE-LA GK-12 Program
Civil & Environmental Engineering
Office: Young 4359

Phone: 310-794-7568
Fax: 310-825-4901
<http://measure.igpp.ucla.edu/GK12-SEE-LA/>

