

Apply for the 2012-2013 Peer Advisor Paid Internship

At the UCLA Career Center!

Are you interested in being a Career Center peer guide and advising UCLA students? Then apply for the Peer Advisor Internship at the UCLA Career Center. The 2012-2013 Peer Advisor session commences this September.

The UCLA Career Center's Peer Advising Internship Program trains UCLA students to act as peer guides and advisors for the Center's resources and services. Assignments can include: giving tutorials in the Career Lab for online internship and job search; advising students about career resources, including graduate and professional school planning; conducting resume critiques; making brief presentations to student organizations or classes; and representing the Career Center at job fairs, information sessions, and other events.

Application Deadline:
Submit all materials
online by Sunday,
May 6, 2012.

Applications are open to: First Year, Sophomore, Juniors, Seniors, Master's, and Doctoral Candidates. For more details and to apply online, visit:

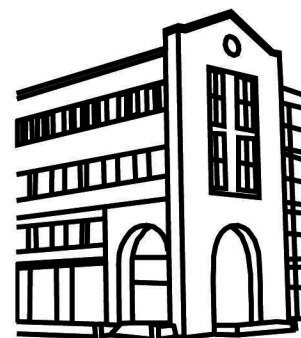

career.ucla.edu/PeerAdvisorApplication

Finalists will be notified by Tuesday, May 15, and will be scheduled for interviews Monday, May 21 through Friday, May 25.

Successful candidates will be notified by Thursday, May 31.

CRITICAL NOTE: Successful applicants must attend a mandatory orientation on Tuesday, June 5, from 5-7pm.

New Peer Advisors will also need to be available Monday-Wednesday, September 24-26, from 9am - 4pm, Week 0 for training.

UCLA Career Center
Excellence. Delivered.
A Department of Student Affairs