Congratulations on your admission!

We’re so excited for you, whether you choose to attend UCLA or not! The Renewable Energy Association at UCLA (REA) welcomes you with open arms -- please don’t hesitate to reach out to us for any information or questions you might have. Hope to see you this fall!
Our Mission

Renewable Energy Association (“REA”) at UCLA strives to cultivate an understanding of the importance of various forms of renewable energy and their effects on our environment, economy and society while encouraging our community’s clean energy development through technical projects, local initiatives, and education.
Structure of REA

EXECUTIVE BOARD

- Oversees and supports the work done by project teams
- Runs campus wide sustainability events, technical workshops, networking events...
- Collaborates with UCLA orgs, faculty, and staff

PROJECT TEAMS

- Biofuels
- Renewable Natural Gas
- Learn and Teach
- In the works: Wind Team
Professional Development Events

- Resume Workshops
- Mock Interview Nights
- Professional Networking Events
- Info Sessions & Career Fairs
Technical Skill Development

- Solar Cell Workshops
- Arduino Workshops
- Biodiesel Conversion
- Biogas Production and Testing
Educational & Advocacy Events

Research & Policy
Sustainability Panels

Campus Advocacy & Outreach Events
Socials!
Let’s stay connected -- feel free to reach out with any questions!

rea.seas.ucla.edu

uclarenewable@gmail.com

Renewable Energy Association at UCLA

@reaucla

Renewable Energy Association at UCLA Network

Sign up for our newsletter: rebrand.ly/REAnewsletter