

Reminder:

Next Tuesday, November 6th is the last day to apply for the 2013 Nestlé USA Leadership Symposium for Diverse Leaders of Tomorrow. New applicants and those who may have already started the process should hurry to submit materials before it's too late!

The Nestlé USA Diversity Leadership Symposium is a 4-day business program designed for undergraduate minority students interested in a career in business and learning more about potential opportunities with Nestlé USA. Applicants should demonstrate strong leadership skills through involvement in student organizations on or off campus.

Ideal for students interested in internship opportunities and careers in the following business functions:

- Human Resources
- Sales
- Finance/Accounting
- Purchasing
- Food Science
- Packaging
- Engineering
- Logistics/Supply Chain

Thirty students will be selected for this unique opportunity to meet with Nestlé senior corporate executives, take a customized leadership training course, serve as volunteers in the local Los Angeles community, and network with key representatives for Nestlé's internships and full-time programs. Open to students with expected graduation dates between December 2013 and June 2016. See website for further criteria and program details.

The 5th Annual Nestlé USA Leadership Symposium will be held April 10-14, 2013 at the Nestlé USA Headquarters in Glendale, California. Nestlé USA will arrange all meals and pay for reasonable travel and accommodations.
