

San Francisco Municipal Transportation AgencySUMMER 2011 STUDENT INTERN PROGRAM
SFMTA Sustainable Streets Division
City and County of San Francisco

Gain valuable on-the-job experience under the guidance of more than 70 experienced professional engineers and planners. Interns will participate in various activities of the Division, such as design and construction of capital/transportation improvement projects, traffic management, bicycle and pedestrian projects, transportation/transit planning, transit engineering, traffic calming, signal design projects, and intelligent transportation system (SFgo) projects. You can learn more about our numerous subdivisions and projects at www.sfmta.com. Part-time work opportunities may be available during the school year. Earn $1,805-$2,029 bi-weekly depending on your qualifications.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- You must be currently enrolled as a full-time student in an accredited civil engineering or city/urban planning undergraduate or graduate degree program at the time of filing. An applicant can be employed up to six (6) months after graduation; otherwise, you must be either returning to an undergraduate program or entering into a graduate program in Fall 2011.
- You must be considering a career in transportation/traffic engineering or planning. Completion of one or more transportation engineering or planning course(s) is desirable but not required.
- You must be a US Citizen, green card holder, or have a legal work permit prior to application.

HOW TO APPLY:

- Complete the on-line Student Intern Application at <http://www.sfstudentintern.org>.

Submit the completed Student Intern Application along with the following in PDF format:

- One-page cover letter (addressing your interest in transportation/traffic engineering or planning, and your career goals)
- Résumé
- Complete college transcripts for both undergraduate and graduate work

Completed application packages must be submitted on-line at: <http://www.sfstudentintern.org>

All file attachments must be in PDF format.

Qualified applicants selected for an interview will be notified of the exact date, time, and place of the interview. Please be sure to provide us with a valid e-mail address and phone number.

Deadline to apply: Thursday, February 17, 2011
