

San Francisco International Airport Internship

SFO- San Francisco International Airport, Airport Commission is pleased to announce two internship opportunities that are currently available and accepting applications.

Each program has a unique application process so please review each program announcement carefully. * *For application details and more information, please visit our website: *<http://www.flysfo.com/web/page/about/jobs/intern/> *

*College Summer Internship Program: *Applications will be accepted through * _February 10, 2012._ *

This program is open to _all majors_ and is a great opportunity to gain experience in the various sections within the Airport Commission. Sections may include, Airport Museum, Information & Technology, Human Resources, Business & Finance and more.

To learn more details and apply, please go to:

<http://www.jobaps.com/SF/sup/BulPreview.asp?R1=TEX&R2=9920&R3=058495&Viewer=Admin&Test=Y>

<<http://www.jobaps.com/SF/sup/BulPreview.asp?R1=TEX&R2=9920&R3=058495&Viewer=Admin&Test=Y>>

*Student Design Engineering Program*: Applications will be accepted through * _February 15, 2012._ *

This program is for students in the areas of Engineering, Architecture, Landscape Architecture, Planning, Survey and GIS. Disciplines include: Architecture, Electrical, Mechanical and Civil Engineering, Computer Science or Computer Engineering with prior* *class work in Access Databases and SQL Programming Operations Research, Management Science, Construction and Project Management and Geographic Information Systems.

SFO has a number of great projects taking place such as: the Runway Safety Area program, the Airport's electrical power distribution system, and other upcoming construction activities.

For more information about this program and how to apply, please visit:

<http://www.sfstudentintern.org/>