

Interested in a career in homeland security or a related industry?

2013 Homeland Security Summer Scholars Academy

The Homeland Security Summer Scholars Academy offers undergraduate students from various disciplines an intensive, hands-on, ten-week summer research experience in a realistic and meaningful environment.

Students chosen for the program will be awarded a $4,000 stipend. Students who do not live within commuting distance (100 miles) of the University of Texas at El Paso will also receive paid on-campus housing and a meal allowance.

Research areas of focus for the 2013 Academy include:

- Aging & the U.S. Naturalization Exam: Finding Optimal Conditions of Practice for Boosting Older Adult Learning and Recall
- Behavioral Game Theory Analysis of Patrolling Games
- Game Theory for Border Security
- Humans for Sale: Modern-Day Slave Trade Routes
- Importance of Photographic, Target, and Perceiver Factors in the Perceptual Identification of Own- and Other-Race/Ethnicity
- Understanding Hispanic Children's Respiratory Health on the U.S.-Mexico border

2013 Program dates are June 3 to August 9. Application deadline is March 25. Opportunities are limited. To find out more about our Summer Scholars Program, please visit: http://uids.utep.edu/ncbsi/student_opportunities.html. Please submit any questions to ncbsi@utep.edu.

National Center for Border Security & Immigration

- Engage with professors to research topics in homeland security and present research findings
- Experience one of the most dynamic border regions while learning about potential careers within various Department of Homeland Security agencies;
- Network with students from across the United States interested in the field of homeland security
- Visit homeland security agencies and learn from experts in the field

The University of Texas at El Paso

500 W. University Ave.
El Paso, TX 79968
915-747-7080

<http://uids.utep.edu/ncbsi/>