

Teaching Opportunity - Unpaid Volunteer

Highly experienced elementary teacher(s) in Long Beach Unified seeking a classroom volunteer to work with gifted and traditional students in a cultural and socioeconomically diverse school in Lakewood (near Long Beach). Will work around your academic schedule. Will shadow master teachers, work with students in small groups, coordinate special projects, assist with grading assignments, and learn about achieving classroom management. TB test will be required. This is an unpaid volunteer position but an excellent way to build resume experience in the field of education, gain potential references/letters of recommendation and learn about the teaching profession from a seasoned educator. Kindergarten, first and fourth grade volunteer positions are available. One of the former volunteers is now enrolled in the UCLA Graduate School of Education. Perfect opportunity for an education minor student.
