

Volunteer with Glendale Learning Program

Are you passionate about education and interested in serving your community? Become a volunteer tutor with Glendale Learning Program (GLP)!

GLP volunteers provide tutoring and mentoring services for students from low-income and/or immigrant backgrounds who attend Wilson Middle School in Glendale. Sites are on Saturday mornings (10 am-12:30 pm), and transportation from UCLA to Glendale and back is provided.

Ready to do your part in the fight against education inequality? Attend one of our info sessions listed below, or email glendalelearningprogram@gmail.com to request a volunteer application!
